08/07/02 "A Family Accused"- focuses on cases where people accused of sexually abusing children were tried and imprisoned based on little real evidence other than the testimony of young children. Includes: 1) "Didn't Stand A Chance" - a followup to a segment of "A Family Accused" (OAD: 06/03/99), a report on the Amirault family who ran the Fells Acre Day School in Malden, Massachusetts and whose careers and lives were ruined by seemingly unfounded charges. The follow-up consists of an update and what has been happening to the Amiraults during the last four years, centering on their struggle to have their family name cleared. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Gail Zimmerman, Brian O'Keefe) 2) "Getting It Right" - a report on the Dallas Children's Advocacy Center, a program whose aim is to draw information from children in sexual abuse cases without leading them in any given direction. Includes an interview with Cheryl Sutterfield, director of the center. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Chuck Stevenson) (Sr. P: of "A Family Accused" - Reid Collins Jr.)

08/09/02 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "The Enemy Within"- an investigation of the murder of Vicki Robinson, a 49-year-old divorced Florida real estate agent, and the role of her 15-year-old daughter, Valessa in the crime. The report focuses on Robinson's inability to control her daughter following her divorce from the girl's father and Valessa's association with two teenage boys, her boyfriend Adam Davis and Jon Whispell. She now claims that Adams was the real killer while she is only guilty of not rescuing her mother. A Florida jury found the girl guilty of murder in the third degree. Her lawyer is appealing the conviction. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Abra Potkin, Loen Kellely) (OAD: 10/12/00 with an update)

08/12/02 (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "The Mystery Of Slide Mountain" - examines evidence and unanswered questions regarding a June 1, 1998 auto accident on Slide Mountain, near Reno, Nevada, that led to the death of Rinette Riella Bergna and left her husband, Peter, with only minor injuries. Bergna, who loved his wife despite marital difficulties, claimed that he was unable to control the vehicle and remembered nothing of the accident after he had been ejected before the crash. Rinette's family and local police had doubts about Peter Bergna's story. Based on evidence at the scene of the accident and the testimony of witnesses, he was tried for murder but was released on bail when a hung jury caused the presiding judge to declare a mistrial. The District Attorney's office decided on continuing with a new trial and four years after the accident, Peter Bergna was found guilty of murdering Rinette. He was sentenced to life in prison, but his defense team has filed a motion of juror misconduct which will be decided later this month. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Peter Henderson, Paul Ryan) (OAD: 03/08/02 with an update)
